TO ACCOMPANY THE AWARD OF THE

Joint Service Commendation Medal

TO

Randolph M. Prince

Lieutenant Randolph Prince, United States Navy, distinguished himself by exceptionally meritorious service as the Demolition and Ordnance Division Officer, Naval School Explosive Ordnance Disposal, Eglin Air Force Base, Florida from October 2011 to July 2013. As the Ordnance Division Officer, he was directly responsible for the accountability of over 500,000 individual ordnance items totaling 1,152 tons and valued at over 18 million dollars with 100 percent accuracy. As the Demolition Division Officer, he expertly led 36 joint service military and civilian instructors, delivering high-risk EOD training to more than 2,200 joint service and partner nation students. He was directly responsible for the successful and safe execution of high-risk training on 3 geographically disparate demolition ranges which included over 12,000 explosive detonations and resulted in the disposal of over 900,000 pounds of net explosive weight with zero mishaps. His technical expertise and experience were imperative in the review and rewrite of two command instructions, two command standard operating procedures, and a complete revision of Demolition Division training curriculum. Through his distinctive accomplishments, Lieutenant Prince reflected great credit upon himself, the United States Navy, and the Department of Defense.
